

NAC contributes to the legacy of O.R Tambo

On 03 March 2010, the NAC officially handed over the 2x3 m beaded portrait of O.R Tambo to the Department of International Relations and Co-operation (DIRCO) in Rietondale, Pretoria. The portrait was donated to the department's new building which is named after the stalwart. The beadwork project was one of the NAC's initiative's to honour O.R Tambo in the role he played during the liberation of South Africa.

The portrait was handed over by the NAC Chairperson, Adv. Brenda Madumise seen here with DIRCO's Chief Director Property and Facilities Management, Ms Bernice Africa, DIRCO's Director General, Dr Ayanda Ntsaluba and Mr. Sello Galane, NAC Board Member.

Portrait of O.R Tambo